It was a Very Good Year!

President's Corner

Christmas Party – 12-9-2014

Party feedback would indicate we all had a good time with delicious food and fellowship. Great to have all the ladies and families as guests to enjoy the evening. Several spouses were first timers. We hope you had a good time and will return again.

Fred Williamson did a great job as first time Food Czar and kept us organized. Thanks to Fred, and all the many volunteers that assisted. We try to fine tune the event preparations each year.

Mars Champaign was not able to attend as he had another volunteer job to handle (Lions Toys for Tots Coordinator). We want to give a huge thanks to Mars for handling the CVW Newsletter as editor. I would suspect Mars out-volunteers all of us, even at age 91. Peter Welch has stepped up to replace Mars as editor.

Oh yes, our Tom Evans goofed up his calendar and could not attend and then he wins as one of the four in our Cherry Challenge AND won the raffle for the giant chunk of rosewood!! Good luck chases him down.

Thanks to the many members who helped make this affair happen.

Have a Happy Hanukkah, Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! Dennis Hippen

The General Meeting:

Members and guests were welcomed
By Dennis Hippen to our 2014 Holiday

Party. Jim Oates explained the Cherry Challenge and invited all spouses to vote for their favorite turned piece. Jim presented the first Journeyman's Certificate to Seth Robinson, our youngest member. Richard Landreth covered the raffles and drawings that would take place this evening. We proceeded to dinner.

Following dinner, Dennis thanked the food providers and introduced the officers. Richard had previously presented a proposed budget for 2015. A motion to accept was made by Ron Capps and seconded by Jim Oates. Motion carried by a show of hands. Our membership stands at 84. He reminded everyone that dues for 2015 are now due.

Jim Oates announced that there was a 4-way tie for winners of the Cherry Challenge. They were Tom Evans, Jim Oates, Jim Kueck and Phil Evans. A tiebreaker drawing was held and Jim Kueck was declared the winner. All received the prize of a gift certificate from Craft Supplies.

The drawing for the Rosewood Burl was won by Tom Evans.
